About the Application Process

All fields are mandatory. The application for membership will also include two reference letters from two of your client companies and a short (one pager) application letter, with a brief presentation of your company and your interests in the real estate sector, for the organization to be able to understand and enhance your objectives. The present form, together with the auxiliary documentation, will be submitted via e-mail to bucharest@brec.ro, under the form of scanned originals (all documents must be worded in English or Romanian). Complete applications for membership will be reviewed for approval by BUCHAREST REAL ESTATE CLUB Executive Committee during their regular meetings.
